KNIGHT OF THE MONTH

Our Knight of the Month for July 2012 is our immediate past Grand Knight Thom Galvin. Thom has been an outstanding grand knight who brought an abundance of energy and a wealth of new ideas to the position of Grand Knight. Thom led us as our council achieved "Double Star Council" status last fraternal year and we are on track to achieve this prestigious award again this year. As of today (June 16) only two of the 120+ councils in Virginia have a legitimate chance to reach this status and we are one of them. Our membership committee also has played a strong role here as well.

Thom was a steady and calming presence in meetings and has built upon the foundation set by his predecessors to establish a new standard that future Grand Knights will be expected to achieve.

Please join me in congratulating Thom as Knight of the Month for July. Thanks to Marijo as well!

GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

Happy (Fraternal) New Year to you, my brother knights as we begin the new council year. I would like to start by thanking all the new council officers who have stepped up to serve this fraternal year. On our behalf I would ask for your support and feedback in order for us to do the best possible job we can for you.

I would also like to thank my predecessors in this position, most especially PGK Thom Galvin with whom I have been privileged to work with as Deputy Grand Knight these past two years. Be sure to stop by The Deep End lounge to thank Thom for his tireless efforts on behalf of EDW.

In this edition of Knight Life you will find the proposed council budget for the 2012-2013 fraternal year. We will be voting on this budget at the July 5 meeting. Please review the budget and plan to attend the meeting. While the figures are in line with previous budgets this is your dues money and you should exercise your right to vote on how that money is spent.

The campus will be an active place in July. Please check the calendar and the upcoming events sections for more information. Please note the blood drive on July 22. This is an opportunity for us to put into action the first lesson of our order which is charity. The one unit of blood you donate can help up to 5 people who are in need of it.

We pray the rosary each Sunday starting at 12:30. PGK Kenny Goss leads us and all are welcome to attend. We pray for all our sick and deceased brothers and also family members who may be in need of our prayers. Feel free to pass along to Kenny or me any intentions you wish to include if you are unable to attend.

Have a happy and safe July. Pray the rosary.

Vivat Jesus,
 Stephen McTeague

IN MEMORIAM: LARRY MAHER

Larry Maher was a friend of mine; as he was to many of you here today. I didn't realize what a daunting task it would be to say a few words about him here today. For when I began to think about it, it dawned upon me that no tribute would do him justice. For you see, I met him late in his long life, after he'd retired from government service and after his beloved wife, Mary, had passed away. He was in his 80's and I was in my 50's; so I knew him for about 1/10 of his life. But not too long after I got to know Larry Maher, I felt like I had known him for a lifetime.

I discovered Larry Maher, as many of you did, as "Larry the Piano Man." When I first saw him playing up at the Alpine, sitting behind the piano in his black Tuxedo, I knew I was in the presence of a star; "Larry the Legend," as they called him at the Dogwood Cafe. His eyes would light up and an enchanting smile would come over his face and he'd start playing those lovely melodies on the piano and I may as well have been listening to the likes of Frank Sinatra or Dean Martin. Man, he loved to play that piano.

But as much as I loved to sit and listen to Larry play the piano, it was a special treat to sit down and have a conversation with Larry Maher. I found him to be a perfectly preserved example of the Virtue and Civility of the men of the Greatest Generation; many of our father's generation and he reminded me of many of the qualities I remembered in my own father.

He could have been among those WWII Veterans that have come from all over the nation to be recognized at the Knights of Columbus in Arlington – Larry's Club. Sure enough, I was recently telling Larry how I had taken a trip to visit Normandy and was overwhelmed by the hallowed majesty of the place. And, sure enough, Larry told me: "Tim, I was at Normandy." And before I could catch my breath to express my astonishment, he assured me that he hadn't come until a week after the invasion to clean up the mess, as he put it.

Still, as an exemplar of his generation, he was simply brimming with Gentility & Gentleness;

Grace & Graciousness; Charity & Charm; Sensitivity & Sense; Humor & Humility Stop me when I've gone too far! In a world that surrounded you with clatter and confusion, Larry Maher always seemed, for a brief moment in time, to draw you into his Zone of Serenity. He brought with him a calm in which all made sense in the world once again.

What I am trying to get at here is that Larry Maher and I always listened to each other's stories and laughed at each other's jokes and I challenge anyone to give a more simple definition of a true friend than that.

And he loved life to it's fullest; a week before he passed, he ventured out with Laura to the Knights of Columbus for a festive beer or two to celebrate the going away party of a friend of his Jack Waters. And even up until the last minutes of his life, he was enjoying it, watching his adopted home-town team, the Washington Nationals, play baseball. The Nats lost the game on a grand slam home run in the bottom of the ninth inning and Larry Maher was felled by a stroke. The Post headline the next morning read: "Heartbreak Home Run Stuns Nationals," and, it could have added, it took Larry Maher with it.

Yes, Larry Maher was a friend of mine and we celebrate the long life of Larry Maher but note too his passing. Because, to paraphrase an old Irish song: "We'll never see the likes of him again."

PART III - EDW'S CHAPTER OF "THE GREATEST GENERATION"

The May and June issues of Knigh tLife identified a total of 15 current members of EDW who served their country during WWII, along with their years of service and other information. Since there was no way to identify ALL members of EDW Council who had served in the armed force s during WWII, any and all were invited to send an email (to Bob Muschamp; bobpatmuschamp@yahoo.com) and we'd print another "supplement".

Since the June Knight Life went to print, we've heard from 4 more EDW members who are also WWII Veterans!

Name	Age	WWII	Service Area	EDW	EDW Activities
Leonard Andrukonis	89	1943-'45 U.S. Army	Central Europe Ardennes; Rhineland	50 + yrs	EDW Choir and Glee Club
Peter Munley	87	1943-'45	China - Burma	45 yrs
Carlo Salzano	85	1944 - '45 U.S. Army	Enroute Pacific at war's end	45 yrs	Redcoat (active)
Alfonso Basile	90	1943 - '46 USAAF	Italy	50 + yrs

Brother Basile reported he was in Italy with the 12th Army Air Force where he was a radio operator and a gunner on a B-25 medium bomber. He joined EDW after helping with some of the electrical work in the bar area and refrigeration units in the council home back in 1951!

EDW Council salutes Leonard, Peter, Alfonso and Carlo!

REVIEW OF THE FATHER DAUGHTER DANCE JUNE 10, 2102

First, we want to thank Brother Chris Hager for his many years of being the Chairman of this event. However, Chris had to step down this year as his family commitments had increased as well as his service to our Country in the Air Force. Chris thank you for carrying the torch for so long and your outstanding job!

Although the Hall was a little hot (some relays in the AC went out at 3pm) the crowd acted like nothing happened. We were impressed with how the tables were decorated, the glassware, the silverware and the lovely flower arrangement centerpieces. The Photo Booth was a big hit and lines ensued till the end of the night (they had to end the line at 9:15pm). DJ Rob, who has done our events for so long, did another great job as the music rolled on all night. From the appetizers to the main course, the reviews of the food were excellent! All were impressed as Dad's and Daughter's were served like Kings and Queens by our great Red Coat Teams. And gift certificates' galore, a total of 34! In addition there were two Grand Prize's that consisted of two "Sleep Over Pajama Baskets" that sent the girls over the top.

From slow dances to Justin Bieber, the night was memorable for all who attended. The floor was never empty the entire night. Well over 180 Fathers and Daughters attended the event. One regular said it was the largest crowd he had ever seen.

So set the date on your calendar now Sunday June 9th 2013 (they had 25 walk-in's even though reservations were a must, however they all got in as "leave no Dad or Daughter behind" was the call).

You do not want to be in the dog house next year too!

"ALL SYSTEMS ARE GO!" FOR NATIONALS DAY!"

Those are the words from EDW's Special Activities Chair, Norm Marcocci, who has been working hard to plan this year's (6th Annual) Nationals Baseball Day Outing. The deadline for making reservations has passed, and once again, this event has sold out! People are coming locally, and from far distances in Virginia. Don't worry, there will be plenty of food and drink at the all-you-can-eat tailgate at the Council Home prior to the game. And once again, a good time is guaranteed for all!

Everyone going to the game is reminded to meet up at the EDW Council Home Bar Deck at 11:00 a.m, on game day, which is Saturday, July 7.. Please be on time. The game tickets and bus assignments will be given out. The door prize raffle tickets will also be sold. The cost will be $5 for 6 tickets, $10 for an arms length, and $20 for a wingspan. The drawings will start around 1:00 p.m. Then at 2:30, following the taking of the group picture, everyone will board the buses, in time for the 4:05 opening pitch. For everyone's convenience, an e-mail will be sent out one week prior to game day explaining what to expect, as well as tips, do's and don't's on game day.

Again, more than 40 door prizes will be raffled off the benefit KOVAR. A brief listing are gift certificates to Giant, Safeway, Regal Cinemas, AMC Theaters, Applebees, Olive Garden, Longhorn Steakhouse, Red Lobster, Greene Turtle, Outback Steakhouse ($45), Famous Dave's ($50), and Legal Sea Foods ($50). Plus there will be Nationals paraphernalia, including, but not limited to, men's, women's, and kids apparel, desk caddy, umbrella, beach towel, clock, Scrabble game, baseball card collection, bean bag toss set, AND a Ryan Zimmerman, Steve Strasburg, and Bryce Harper jersey! You can't beat all this, can you?!?!?!?

The buses will return to the Council Home immediately after the game is over. Upon arrival, everyone will be invited back inside for one complimentary drink. A 50/50 raffle will be conducted to also benefit KOVAR. If you're still hungry, why not treat yourself to a delicious steak dinner at a reasonable price?

Volunteers are desperately needed to help Norm on game day. If you are interested, have any questions, or need additional information, please contact Norm at either (703) 263-9771, or nlmarco@yahoo.com. If you need to call Norm on game day, please call his cell phone at (703) 376-1631. GO NATS!

RETIREES

Well, summer is here. We celebrate the Fourth of July - the founding of our great republic. Of course on the Fifth of July we commemorate the first time someone said "trust me; I'm from the federal government".

If you are on vacation with nothing to do, stop in and visit with us on any Wednesday from 11am to whenever. Great lunches for $4 and beverages are included at little or no cost.

July Birthdays: Tom Murphy and Betty Balestrieri.

July Anniversaries: Dave and Margaret Albreit, Joe and Bobbi Dunne, and John and Regina Ratway.

Please pray for all of our Brothers and their families.

MEMORIAL DAY CHARITY BIERGARTEN RECAP.

The MEMORIAL DAY KOVAR BIERGARTEN was an outstanding success raising $925 for KOVAR! Due to the overwhelming response we'll be back for the 4th of July and Labor Day celebrations this summer.

EDW would like to thank the bartenders: Chris Bannon, Paul Bothwell, Vince Long, Scott McCredy, Steve McTeague and Greg Strizek for taking time away from their family and friends to pitch in for EDW's signature charity, KOVAR.

BLOOD DRIVE NEWS

The next EDW/Red Cross blood drive will be on July 22nd. It will be held in the lower lounge and will be from 8:30AM to 2PM. We have been talking to the Red Cross to somehow speed up the process. We are told one reason the process has slowed is recent Federal regulations that no longer allow the donor to complete some of the questions in advance, all now have to be answered in the booth.
